

We have 1,000
reasons why you'll love agriculture.

Check out the Saskatchewan Agriculture Student Scholarship
Deadline: Feb. 15, 2012

The What:

Ten scholarships worth $1,000 each.

The Who:

Grade 12 students and recent graduates (the past two years) in Saskatchewan planning to take agriculture-related post-secondary education beginning in the fall of 2012.

The How:

Applicants need to:

- i) Write a 750-word essay or produce a three-minute video essay; and
- ii) Provide a letter of recommendation from a teacher, agricultural industry or community leader.

Essays need to address one of two topics:

- i) The future information and technological needs of agricultural producers; or
- ii) One or more common myths about agriculture. Essays must dispel the myth(s) through research, facts and statistics.
